

Compaction

Plants need air and water to live. Compaction removes pores.

Compacted soils have few pores.

Cracks are made in the soil by freezing and thawing and wetting and drying.

Plants send roots into areas of poor soil to make them porous again.

In time the soil is made healthy.